

Short BIO – Wendy K. White Eagle

Wendy K. White Eagle is the Founder and Managing General Partner of Inspire Nous, a Native Capital Company. Inspire Nous is the regenerated brand which builds on the 19-year legacy of Native Capital Investment, Inc. and produces results which level out the rules of engagement in finance.

Ms. White Eagle leads business development and fund management activities. She is a proud member of the Eagle Clan of the Ho-Chunk Nation of WI and has more than 30 years of business building experience in the utility, financial, and manufacturing sectors specializing in helping companies build high performing business processes to actualize business impact.

Wendy is skilled at integrating various strategic approaches – from Six Sigma to Customer Relationship Management – into organizational culture. She has been intimately involved in the creation of organizational approaches that augment capital infusion and has served to bring core competencies into alignment with these strategy directions.

In addition to large corporate experience, she has been involved in circles of worldwide thought leadership in SustainAble Business and mindful development.

Ms. White Eagle graduated from Edgewood College with a BS in Communications and has completed graduate work at the Center for Quality and Productivity, School of Business, University of Wisconsin-Madison. She has also served in many Boards of Directors with most recent volunteer activity in the area of metric impact reporting in the non-profit sector.

Inspire Nous is new growth coming out of a 19-year history of assisting entrepreneurs in their effort to develop businesses that serve the world in a larger and profound manner. We are a full service, research driven, investment organization that seeks to create fair trade business development. Current operations include - business valuation analysis, merger/acquisitions, creation of transparent financial reporting processes, and private equity investment.

Inspire Nous works worldwide with like-minded partners interested in leaving the world a better place than we found it. Our focus is on manufacturing, medical technology, and technological innovation. We invest for expansion and growth with established business models that have high internal growth rates and large-market leadership potential. We maintain deep portfolio company involvement by helping leaders of portfolio companies develop and achieve highly profitable leadership positions in large markets.

Inspire Nous serves the world by expansively working alongside our partners to expand impact by utilizing our pillars for growth:

- Women and Community
